

Energy Efficiency in NSW

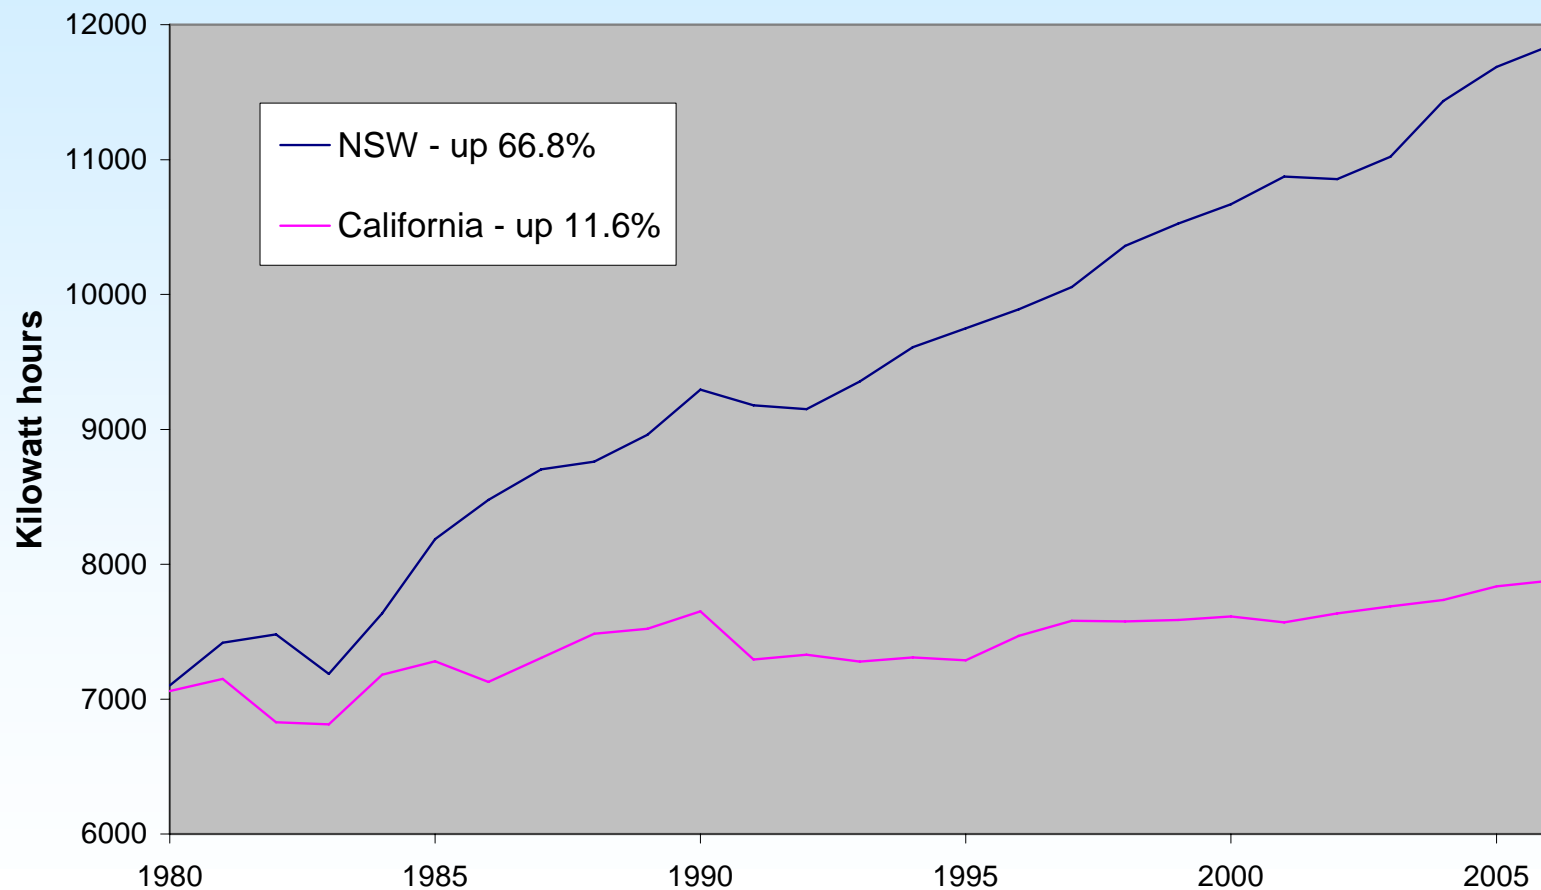

Jen Stace

Manager, Emissions Reduction

NSW Department of Environment and Climate Change

California: Electricity usage does not have to increase with economic growth

Electricity Consumption per capita, NSW & California, 1980-2006

NSW Climate Change Fund

Provides funding for energy and water savings, and renewable energy

Energy efficiency programs include:

- $100 million Residential Rebate Program
- $30 million Green Business Program
- $30 million Public Facilities Program
- $20 million School Energy Efficiency Program

The NSW Energy Efficiency Strategy - $150M

- NSW Energy Savings Scheme
- $63m Low Income Household Refit Program
- $15m Small Business Energy Efficiency Program
- $15m Community Awareness Program
- $20m Sustainability Advantage Energy Saver (medium and large business)
- $20m for energy efficiency skills development

SAVE POWER WHAT CAN YOU DO IN YOUR WORLD?

Skip to Content

Subscribe

- Home
- About
- Households
- Business
- Communities
- Government
- News

Switch to compact fluorescent light bulbs to reduce your impact on the environment

What is a black balloon?

A simple device to help us measure every 50 grams of carbon pollution in our homes and businesses.

Rate your home energy use

Use the NABERS Home Rating to find out how your energy use compares to others more ▶

Cut your power use and save we can show you how

- Household
- Business
- Communities

Watch tv advertisements

play ▶

Save power at home
Get rid of the old second fridge and save more than 20,000 black balloons. more ▶

Save power in your business
Switch from 50W low voltage halogen lights to 11W CFLs and reduce lighting electricity use by up to 75%. more ▶

Low Income Household Refit Program
Find out about the Program and cut your power bills. more ▶

NSW energy efficiency goals
The NSW Climate Change Fund currently supports projects that will save over 5.2 billion black balloons every year. more ▶

