

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS AT A GLANCE

Category	SPONSORING 	CORPORATE 	ASSOCIATE
Member fee (inc. GST)	$ 48,950	$ 12,870	$ 3,135
Description	Major players	Large organisations	Small organisations
Eligibility	For businesses seeking an active strategic and policy role to increase their company profile and influence within the sustainable energy industry, participate in and support CEC work and become better informed of the opportunities that this growing industry provides.	For medium to large corporations, and state and federal government departments/agencies that have an interest in sustainable energy.	For smaller organisations with an interest in sustainable energy including consultancies, local government, educational institutions or other small private organisations.
Annual General Meeting votes	20	6	2
Member presence on the CEC website	Logo on the CEC home page PLUS listing on member pages with company logo, profile and contact details.	Listing on member pages with company logo, profile and contact details.	Listing on member pages with company logo, profile and contact details.
Participation in the Policy & Advocacy Advisory Committee  Sets policy for the CEC under delegation from the Board and made up of Sponsoring members and the Chairperson of each CEC Directorate.	✓
Eligibility to join Directorates  Directorates are categorised by technology type and provide an opportunity for members to raise and progress issues specific to their sub-sector (limit of two participants per company for each Directorate).	Complementary seat on up to five CEC Directorates.	Complementary seat on up to two CEC Directorates.

CEC MEMBERS AT THE SPONSORING, CORPORATE AND ASSOCIATE LEVELS ARE ENTITLED TO THE FOLLOWING:

Access to the member-only section of the CEC website	✓ Includes current and past copies of CEC reports, research and newsletters.
Permission to use the CEC member logo	✓ Logo can appear on marketing material as per CEC Member Logo Guidelines.
Discounted member rates for all CEC events	✓ Includes conferences, workshops and member networking drinks.
Receive member-only communication	✓ Includes regular newsletters, updates, media releases and an in-depth daily media wrap-up.
Invitations to member-only briefings and updates	✓ The latest on market and regulatory developments, and government policies and programs.
Discounted member subscription to the CEC media monitoring service	✓ A high-level service without the high cost.
Opportunity to sponsor CEC events	✓ Raise your profile in the industry.
Discounted advertising rates on the CEC website, including the careers page	✓ Reach up to 25,000 key targets a month.

